Fairytale Genre

Assignment: You and your group will perform a common fairytale in front of the class in two separate genre styles. The fairytale must be a complete story with a beginning, middle, and end. Your first performance will be in a specific genre that you and your group will decide. Your second performance will be in a genre that the class will choose. The integrity of the story must remain the same despite the change in genre. All performers will be graded individually.

Objective: Student will be able to perform a complete and coherent story in front of an audience.
